

WALADU: Development and Structuring of BA Courses in Archaeology in Iraq
15th October 2016 - 31st January 2020

Dissemination Event at the LMU München
Institute of Near Eastern Archaeology
Historicum, Room No. K427

21st February 2020, 10am - 3pm

AGENDA

- Welcoming speech by the Dean of Faculty 12: Prof. Carola Metzner-Nebelsick
- Welcome, Introduction to the Project, general Objectives: Prof. Adelheid Otto
- Statement by the International Office, Information on Erasmus+: Dr. Stefan Lauterbach
- Report on the individual Project Stages, Meetings, Measures on part of the LMU:
Anna Kurmangaliev
- Project Organisation: Challenges and Opportunities: Ilona Spalinger
- Field Report by the Interpreter and Mentor: Wadeea Zerkly
- Report on the Measures in the Field of ANE Philology / Cooperations / Courses:
Dr. Paola Paoletti
- Report on the Measures in the Field of ANE Archaeology / Cooperations / Courses:
Dr. Simone Mühl
- Report by the Participants in KOC Summer School:
Svende Bielefeld, Dennis Busch, Valeriya Minaeva, Marco Wolf
- Results and Outlook: Prof. Adelheid Otto

Short Description of the Project:

WALADU (Akkadian for "to generate") is an EU co-funded international project within the framework of the Erasmus+ Capacity Building Key Action 2 in the field of Higher Education. The objective of the WALADU-Project is to support Iraqi Universities in modernising and restructuring their BA curricula of archaeological and historical subjects and in aligning them with EU-Standards.

Participating Universities:

IRAQ: University of Kufa, University of Baghdad, University of Al-Qadisiyah

EUROPE: Università di Bologna (IT), Koc University (TK), LMU München (D)